Fall 1998

Dear Friends,

The year is progressing well, and several important things have already occurred in the Genealogical Society. Our summer picnic was fun, the beginner's classes have been well attended, and excellent programs have been planned and presented by Dr. Sneary and his Program Committee. The Library Committee is busy with acquisitions and plans for the Special Collections Room at the Neva Lomason Library. The Publications Committee has had great success with the 1840 Census Book and an outstanding Quarterly. Congratulations to all who participated in these achievements.

I will continue with sites for genealogical researchers in our area which I began in the Summer Quarterly, in answer to "What are the best resources which are in close enough proximity where I may begin looking for information about my ancestors?" I would like to tell you about three additional favorite places.

THE FAMILY HISTORY CENTER

821 Old Atlanta Highway, Newnan, GA 770-254-9857

The Center is open Tuesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., and on Sunday by appointment. Genealogical information available on computer include the IGI (International Genealogical Index) and Ancestral File. The Family History Catalog contains all the holdings in the Salt Lake City facility. For a small fee many of these holdings can be loaned to a local Family History Center. The volunteers at the Newnan Center are knowledgeable and very helpful. There is another Family History Center at the Douglasville Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

THE GEORGIA ROOM, COBB CENTRAL LIBRARY

266 Roswell St., Marietta, GA 770-528-2333

This is another great place for research. They are open Monday thru Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. On Friday and Saturday the hours are 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Their book holdings are extensive with numerous volumes about Georgia and other southeastern states.

THE COWETA GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL RESEARCH CENTER

This is located in the old passenger train depot in Grantville, GA. This town is south of Newnan just off I-85. The Library is open Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and it houses local and regional information.

Today much information can be obtained from the Internet; however, the very best way to do genealogical research is to go to the area of interest and examine the documents personally. There are probably more records than one expects, and it is exciting to find one's ancestors listed in census, land, marriage, birth, or death records.

Happy researching,

The following article was taken from the CULLEY & MOLLIE DENNEY, PARENTS & DESCENDANTS- 1998 book, which can be seen in the Neva Lomason Library, Carrollton, Georgia. This excerpt from the book is submitted by Mrs. Violette H. Denney, 135 Maple Hill Rd., Carrollton, GA.

DESCENDANTS OF JAMES A. DENNEY

Generation No. 1

1. JAMES A. DENNEY<sup>1</sup> was born January 1832 in Panthersville, DeKalb County, Georgia, and died April 27, 1887, in Heard County, Ga., bur. Hopewell Primitive Baptist Church Cem. He married MARTHA ANGELINE (MARY ANN) PATTERSON, December 23, 1852, in Troup County, Georgia.

At Christmas time in 1852, James A. Denney (DOB January 1832) and Mary Anne Patterson (DOB July 12, 1835) got married. Mary Anne was about 18 and James was 20 when they married. Since James' father had died of typhoid fever when James was 16, he had taken over his father's business at an early age. As a young man, he worked hard on the family business which included farming, milling, blacksmithing, and cattle raising. The family farm was located at this time either in Troup or Mariwether County, Georgia.

James was 6'4" tall, weighed about 240 lbs, and wore a size 16 shoe. In contrast, Mary Anne was a petite woman who weighed about 90 lbs. and was only 5'1" tall. By the time the Civil War began in 1861, James and Mary Anne had 3 children: Frank (age 8), John (age 4), and Cullie, who was 1 year old in 1861.

In November of 1862, James volunteered to join the Confederate forces. He had just finished building a beautiful, large house which he had even sawed the logs for on his own sawmill. However, due to his strong sense of responsibility, he left his wife and 3 small children to join Company 8 of Cobb's Legion. After about 8 weeks of intense training, he was granted a furlough to go home until the early part of March, 1863.

When he returned to the Confederate Army, he was given the duty of carrying a bellows on his back from battlefield to battlefield in order to shoe horses for the Army.

Descendants of James A. Denney, Cont'd.

James was given this duty partially because he was such a large, strong man who was already experienced in the skills of blacksmithing.

At the Battle of Perrysville, James was shot in the stomach or abdominal area, and the shot passed completely through his body. The only treatment he was given was to have a silk handkerchief that had been soaked in vinegar passed through the hole created in his abdomen by the gunshot. The handkerchief was placed on the ramrod of a rifle and pushed through his body. Perhaps because of his large stature and strong body, James lived through this episode. James remained with the army until April 13, 1865. He was in the company with John B. Gordon when the Southern Forces surrendered at Appomattox Courthouse.

When James left Appomattox to return home in early May, he had no money, no shoes, and clothes that were threadbare. James and W. C. Shirey made the journey back to Georgia together. The journey was very arduous because they had no directions, no money, or food. Although much of the South had been destroyed or devastated by then, people helped them as much as they could. They managed to survive the three-month journey home.

When James returned to his family, he found that his house and mill had been destroyed. His farm had even been sold by Carpetbaggers for delinquent taxes. Mary Anne had had a fourth child soon after James had left for war and had even been forced to hide with her 3 children in a cave during part of the war to escape the Yankees. The only food they had to eat were the small animals that Mary Anne would kill in the woods, such as rabbit and squirrel. She did manage to keep one of their cows, so they had fresh milk to drink.

James and Mary Anne decided to start their lives over and moved to northern Heard County where they bought one lot of land (202 1/2 Ac.) near the head of Centralhatchee Creek. This land was paid for by the gold that Mary Anne had managed to hold onto even while James was away at war.

With neighbors' help James first built a one-room log house. He eventually was able to build a three-chimney house which was considered a fine house in its time. He also built a grist mill, a mill dam, and a sawmill. Their family became active in Hopewell Primitive Baptist Church whose building they helped build along with their neighbors, the Langleys, the Barkers, and the Lathans. The Hopewell Church was near James Denney's home.

James and Mary Anne went on to have 9 children, 8 boys and 1 girl. The 6 youngest children were James (born during the war), Lonnie, William, Charlie, Buna Vista (nicknamed "Bunie"), and Joseph Benjamin, the youngest. "Bunie," the only daughter, was named after Buna Vista Hill where her father was wounded during the Civil War. When James died in 1887 at age 55, he left his large family in good shape. At his death, he had two lots of land and more than 100 acres being cultivated, a grist mill, a sawmill, a blacksmith shop, and a large, comfortable home. A SON OF A CONFEDERATE SOLDIER

Thomas Moore's father was one of the 2,500 young men who left Carroll for the Civil War

by John Kinnaman, The Times-Georgian

When a Southerner looks back through the family trees to the Civil War he or she might find that Great-Grandfather served in the Confederate Army. Thomas Moore, however, need not look past his father.

Moore, who will turn 88 years old this month, is the second real son of a Confederate soldier found by members of the McDaniel-Curtis Camp 165, Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Finding Moore, said Dutch Dreyer, past commander of the camp, was significant.

"There are not many people still alive who can say they are the son of a Confederate soldier, and this is part of our historical research," Dreyer said.

Only 12,000 people lived in Carroll County during the Civil War, and according to Dreyer, 2,500 young men left the county to fight Union soldiers.

"That is a large number of the population in this area back then. I think this county sent more young men than any other county back then," Dreyer said. "Currently we have more than 800 burial plots in the county belonging to Confederate soldiers which are decorated each year on Confederate Memorial Day."

Moore was honored Wednesday at his home in Bowdon by Camp 165 with an honorary membership into the organization and a medal from national headquarters of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, which was established in 1896.

"I am very thankful for the award," said Moore, who was only 5 when his father passed away. And Moore's only memory of his dad was at the funeral.

"The only thing I remember about Dad is seeing him in the coffin before he was buried," Moore said.

Moore's father, Archibald Moore, was born in Fayette County in 1843. Like many other young Southern men who believed they could bring the North to its knees in a very short time, Moore enlisted as a private in Company B of the 10th Alabama in Hilliard's Legion of Cavalry. He fought in the Chickamauga and the Chattanooga campaigns under Davidson's brigade of Pegrem's division. He also fought in the Atlanta campaign, which ended in the burning of the city by Sherman's soldiers.

Moore surrendered with Gen. Joseph Johnson on April 26, 1865, at Durham Station in North Carolina. Upon his return to Georgia Moore became a farmer. He married twice and had six children by his first wife, two by his second. Moore died on May 26, 1914, and was buried in the cemetery at Propest Baptist Church in Randolph County, Ala.

Though his final resting spot is now known, it was lost in family records and, according to Tommy Moore, Archibald Moore's grandson, it was not found until recently.

"We did not know where he was buried. We finally found it 10 years ago," Tommy Moore said.

Camp 165 has requested a grave marker for Thomas Moore's father. The marble marker, if approved, will replace a large rock which is currently marking Archibald Moore's burial plot.

A Son of a Confederate Soldier (Archibald Moore), Cont'd.

Sam Pyle, commander of Camp 165, said the marker for a Confederate soldier is pointed, unlike the rounded Union marker.

"It was said throughout the years that the reason for the pointed Confederate burial markers was so 'no damn Yankees' would sit on the tombstones," Pyle said.

While Thomas Moore was honored by Camp 165, his son Tommy has also joined the Sons of Confederate Veterans. Tommy Moore said joining the organization is very important to him.

"I feel good about it. I think it is important because I never got to meet my grandfather and I want to keep his name alive," Tommy Moore said.

Thomas Moore has lived in Carroll County all his life and has 13 children.

THE LITTLEFIELD FAMILY

Written from information submitted by

Marlene Mecham Wall
3277 Sutcliffe Ridge
Marietta, GA 30064-1735

Alfred Allen Littlefield was born 11 Mar 1858, Hickory Flat, Chambers Co., AL, son of William M. Littlefield Sr. and Nancy Esther Stewart. He married in 1885, Randolph Co., AL, to Sarah Elizabeth Prince, who was born 25 Mar 1866, Randolph Co., AL, the daughter of James J. Prince and Nancy F. Pollard. Alfred Allen died 08 Dec 1932, LaGrange, Troup Co., GA, and Sarah Elizabeth died 10 Sep 1946, LaGrange. They are both buried in the Rocky Branch Cemetery, Randolph Co., AL.

Alfred Allen and Sarah Elizabeth Prince Littlefield had six children as follows:

1. Ada Lavonia Littlefield, b 01 Jan 1886, Randolph Co., AL; md 21 Jan 1902, Randolph Co., AL, to Marion Jackson Lester; d 18 Dec 1972, LaGrange, Troup, GA; bur 21 Dec 1972, Shadowlawn Cem., Troup, GA. (See below)
2. James William "Bud" Littlefield, b 09 Feb 1888, Chambers Co., AL; md Dora Gray; no children; d 04 Aug 1953, LaGrange, Troup, Ga; bur Rocky Branch Cem., Randolph Co, GA.
3. George Washington Littlefield, b 09 May 1891, Hickory Flat, Chambers, AL; never married; d 28 Dec 1921, LaGrange, Troup, GA; bur Rocky Branch Cem., Randolph Co., AL.
4. Fernanda Levada Littlefield, b 25 Nov 1893, Randolph Co., AL; md Ben Trent; d 24 Sep 1954, LaGrange, Troup, GA; bur Shadowlawn Cem., Troup Co., GA.
5. Emily Dera Littlefield, b 05 Aug 1901, Randolph Co., AL; md Amos Morgan Brown in Randolph Co., AL; d 28 May 1961, LaGrange, Troup, GA; bur Restlawn Cem., Troup Co., GA.
6. Lura Evie Lea Littlefield, b Apr 1907, Randolph Co., AL; md Otis Glenn Stevens, 02 Sep 1939, LaGrange, Troup, GA; no children; d 1991, LaGrange, Troup, GA; bur Restlawn Cem., Troup Co., GA.

Alfred Allen Littlefield's mother died when he was seven or eight years old, and his father married again and had another family; however, he never mentioned anything about those families that his immediate family ever knew about. My grandmother, Ada

The Littlefield Family, Cont'd.

Lavonia, was his eldest daughter and she was very young when her grandfather died and never spoke about him.

Alfred and Sarah gave their consent for Ada Lavonia, at the young age of 16, to marry Marion Jackson Lester at Springfield, AL., on 01 Jan 1902. George Franklin Lester and his wife Laura Colon Duffy McCollough signed for their son to marry Ada, so the union had the blessing of both these families.

The first child of Ada Lavonia "Vonie" and Marion was Ethel Maude Lester, my mother, born 30 Oct 1902. To this union were born five more children: Marvin Luther Lester Sr., Howard Louis Lester Sr., Annie Lois Lester, Clara Bell Lester, and Eunice Inez "Peggy" Lester. All were born in Randolph County with the exception of Peggy, who was born in Glenn, GA., a farming community, where the families of George and Laura Lester, and Marion Jackson and Ada Littlefield Lester, had moved. Ada and M. J. Lester were married 70 years before their deaths in 1972.

Ethel Maude Lester married Walter E. Meacham on 27 Mar 1920, in LaGrange, Troup Co., GA. Their first born was Buford Broughton "B.B." Meacham, born 10 Jun 1921. Clarence J., Avanelle Inez, and Lois Marlene Meacham were the other children of Maude and Walter Mecham.

I am the youngest child of Maude who was devoted to her mother and father. Likewise, Ada Littlefield Lester was devoted to her mother, Sarah Elizabeth Prince Littlefield. When my great grandmother Sarah became ill with cancer of the stomach, my grandmother and mother took turns in their busy days to go and see after Grandmother Sarah and assist in her care. I was just 12 years old when she was taken to her bed and my sister, Avanelle, and I would walk to visit her and read the Bible to her and talk with her. This bond I had with my grandmother Vonie and my great grandmother Sarah gave me this vision of what a mother and grandmother should be, Bible-loving christian women.

In the summer of 1964 at the annual Lester Reunion in LaGrange, GA., I made the trip from my home in Richmond, VA., to meet all the wonderful family members who attended this event. All of my aunts were gathered around the family Bible adding birth dates and marriage dates. It became apparent at that time that someone would have to accept the task of writing down all of these records and trying to maintain them. We were all gathered around my grandmother, Vonie, who suddenly turned to me and said, "You can do it daughter." In shocked disbelief I protested, "Not Me." however, that was some 33 years ago and I am still endeavoring to do as she asked me to do -- set the record straight.

[Mrs. Wall has also included some research on the parentage of William M. Littlefield. He was the son of Absoiem Littlefield, who was the son of Nathan Littlefield. This has been placed in the Neva Lomason Library for use by researchers.]

THE WOOL-HAT BOYS AT VICKSBURG

By Dennis King Jones

100 Parsons, Apt. 704

Detroit, MI 48201 Tel. 313/831-4958

While researching family history, I became curious about the military history of my many relatives who served the Confederacy during the War Between the States. One thing that interested me is that so many of them served in the same unit, Company "H", 41st Georgia Infantry Volunteers. For some unexplained reason they became known as the "Wool-Hat Boys."

In the book, Grant Wins the War: Decision at Vicksburg, written by James R. Arnold about the siege at Vicksburg, I found a terrible explanation for the nickname of this unit. At the conclusion of the Battle of Champion Hill, Union burial details found many of the boys from Georgia dead from bullets that pierced their white wool slouch hats and shattered their brains. Combat veterans in both armies knew better than to go into battle with any kind of white apparel which marked them as targets. I read that in the South white uniforms were issued because of the shortage of dye but the veteran soldiers refused to wear them. The Georgian units, the 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, and the 52nd, were recruited in 1862 and were some of the last units raised in Georgia.

The campaign and the Siege of Vicksburg were under the command of Lt. General Pemberton, a Pennsylvanian who followed his Virginia-born wife south when Fort Sumter was bombarded in 1861. He served on General Joseph Johnson's staff as Brigadier and was promoted to head up the coastal defenses of South Carolina and Georgia. He failed to distinguish himself in this position and Governor Pickens of South Carolina asked for his removal. In one of his many shuffles, President Davis placed him in command of the Department of Tennessee, Mississippi, and east Louisiana.

He did not prove to be too popular in Mississippi, and one of the friends of President Davis said of him, "A most insignificant puke," and told Davis that Pemberton's army was in a deplorable condition. Pemberton, like most of the generals commanding in the west, didn't get along well with the other generals, especially General Loring who ridiculed Pemberton to his face and in front of his staff, and who ignored Pemberton's orders when he saw fit.

Most of the boys from Bowdon were in Company H of the 41st, which was in the First Brigade. The First was commanded by Brigadier General Seth M. Barton and was comprised of the 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 52nd, and the Cherokee Artillery. Barton's Brigade was part of Carter Stephenson's Division, and the new Major General was joined by a new Brigadier and a new Brigade that had never been under fire and were poorly trained. Both Barton and Stephenson hardly knew their staff. Also serving under Stephenson in his Third Brigade, commanded by Brigadier General Alfred Cumming, was Company "B", 56th Georgia Infantry Volunteers. Company "B" was also filled with Bowdon volunteers, many of whom were also related to me.

On May 16, 1863, the Division of raw Georgia volunteers were in the rear of Pemberton's Army. When Pemberton decided to counter march, this put Stephenson's

The Wool-Hat Boys at Vicksburg, Cont'd.

Division in the van (front). They were pushed hard by Grant's veterans and were trashed; they lost 16 of their artillery pieces and Grant's veterans held the field.

Remnants of Stephenson's Division served in the pits during the siege, mostly in rear positions. As a unit they had been nearly destroyed. When Pemberton surrendered, the men were paroled and sent home. After being without sufficient food or medical care and sleeping in the open, most of the men were in a deplorable condition. Some never made it home after stopping in field hospitals. Among those were two of my great grandfathers, John M. Burt Jr. and Benjamin King. The ones that did survive were in such bad physical shape they were unable to work again. One must also wonder about their psychological condition, but in those days it was not talked about.

Relatives that served in Company "H", 41st Georgia

John M. Burt Jr.	Henry Gaines Smith
Benjamin King	H. Thomas Smith
Stephen Jones	James Gabriel Smith
Thomas King	Gabriel Nix
John Lewellan	James Lewellan

Relatives that served in Company "B", 56th Georgia

David Burson	John Burson
Joseph G. King	James Mark Smith
Charles Smith	James Bryant Smith
John Littleton Smith

Note: Ramson Smith served in Company "F", 56th Georgia.

When you read all these names, consider that this was one family, and all of these -- our relatives -- came from a small town, Bowdon, Georgia. All served in one Division, and in this one Division were four of our great grandfathers, Benjamin King, Stephen Jones, John M. Burt Jr., and Joseph G. King. It is surprising that this family survives. Stephen Jones and Joseph King made it through the dreadful war, but were never the same again.

Some of the information was found in Grant Wins the War; Decision at Vicksburg, by James R. Arnold, Pub. Wiley & Sons, 1997; and Our Smith King Families, by J. Marie Hebel-McBride, Copyright 1997.

We need your genealogical information! If you have family group sheets, pedigree charts, or anything else which would be of interest to our readers, please send copies of your information to us and let us write an article for you.

The Carroll County Marriage Books are located in the Office of the Probate Judge, Carroll County Court House, 323 Newnan St., Carrollton, GA. The marriage records began in 1827. The records contain the name of the bride and groom, date of marriage, and the name of the official who performed the ceremony. These marriages have been listed in a publication called Carroll County Marriages, 1827 to 1980, by Jenny Martin Fagg. The published records do not contain the name of the official who performed the ceremony.

There are marriage certificates available from the 1890's to the present date. The same information that is contained in the marriage books is on the certificate. The Probate Judge will make a copy of the certificate for $4.00 per certificate, mailed to you. If you come in person, there is just the copy charge of $0.25.

Some marriage applications are on file from the 1920's. These applications contain the name of the bride and groom, their place of residence, and age. They do not contain the name of the parents. Only parental permission requests contain the name of at least one parent.

Listed below are the marriage certificates that are available for the years 1890 thru 1899. Microfilm, CARROLL COUNTY LOOSE MARRIAGE RECORDS, containing the full listing can be read at the Neva Lomason Library, Carrollton, GA, after October 1, 1998. This Library does not have the microfilm of the actual certificates. Microfilm containing copies of the list and the copies of the certificates can be used at the Georgia Archives in Atlanta. Possibly the Family History Centers of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints can provide a copy of the complete list, with the multiple rolls of certificates.

ITEMS OF GENEALOGICAL INTEREST, CARROLL COUNTY TIMES

29 July 1881

SHOAL CREEK - Mr. Joe Chandler has had the misfortune to lose three mules which cost him $425. It was a severe loss to a young man like Joe who has just started out in the world to seek his fortune. Married, last Thursday night week, Mr. R. M. Cassels to Miss Mattie Perrin.

5 Aug 1881

Mr. Garry Grice has bought out the plantation of his father, Mr. Larry Grice, in the Eleventh district in this county.

Mr. W. V. Smith, of Coweta, bought land on the north side of Mr. H. B. Reagan's lot, near here, instead of the south side as stated last week.

Hymeneal - Married, at the residence of the bride's father, July 21st, 1881, by Rev. W. H. Speer, Mr. J. D. Duke of Broxville, Ala., and Miss Anna C. Coker, of Carroll county.

Mrs. Dr. Rowe, of Auburn, Ala., nee Miss Lillie Bass, formerly of this place, is visiting relatives in Carrollton.

Carroll County Times, Cont'd.

Mrs. S. T. Kingsbery, of Quitman, Ga., is visiting relatives in this place.

We learn that Mr. H. O. Roop contemplates building him a neat residence this fall.

Obituary - Sammie H. Huey, son of J. H. and W. A. Huey, died of typhoid-pneumonia in Carroll county, after a short life of nineteen years, eight months, and seventeen days, July 24th, 1881....

COWETA - Miss Arminda Morgan, sister of Col. J. D. Morgan of Carroll county, is quite sick.... Billy Nix and wife, Miss Saphronia Pitts and Mr. Roseman of Buffalo, Carroll county, are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

CURTIS - Mr. J. A. Reeves, of Cathoun, Ga., is visiting his brother, Mr. George Reeves, of this vicinity. Mr. S. E. Helton is erecting a new gin house. He anticipates running a gin with his new engine this fall. Messrs. E. W. and G. W. Camp have the best field of upland corn in this community. I think it is as good as Mr. Wat Wells' of your town.

BUFFALO - We learn that some evil minded person stole from the pasture a horse belonging to Reuben Baxter, of the Eleventh, the 22nd ult.

STRIPLING'S CHAPEL - Mr. C. E. Benton's wife and children are on a visit to their old home in Harris county.... Mr. Johnnie Huggins says the fact of the business is that nobody can tell how big he felt on last Monday evening. It was a pretty little girl. Messrs. Penn and Chandler have put up a saw-mill on the land of Mr. W. M. Lyle, and we predict that they will soon be doing a rousing big business. In our last we mentioned the illness of Mr. Dave Burton's little girl. It has since died.

12 Aug 1881

Courtney Meadows, who was with this paper last year, and who went out to the Indian Territory early this year, is now at work on a daily paper at Fort Worth, Texas, we learn.

The colored Methodists of Carrollton are having a neat new church building erected just beyond the Culpepper place on Newnan street. The work is being done by their pastor, Archie Samuels.....

Early last spring Mr. Jas. P. Moore, of this place, leased the mining interest of the Clopton goldmining property near Villa Rica from Mr. Willis Bagwell, and since then has been engaged trying to find a richer vein of ore on it. After long search and much hard labor, he has succeeded, and is now working a very rich vein.....

Willis Lepard has just opened a new restaurant at his store in southeast corner of Public Square. If you want a good square meal, or luncheon, at any hour of the day, call round and he can give it to you. Square meal, 25 cents; luncheon, 10 cents. He also keeps on hand a full line of confectioneries.

Mr. P. O. Hollinsworth, of Grantville, Ga., was in town this week on a visit to relatives, Mr. I. B. Perdue and family.

Mr. Jas. S. Mooring, who has been connected with Bowdon college, returned to his home at Livingston, Ala., yesterday. He will not return.

Mr. J. R. Lassiter, who formerly went to school in this place, but now farming near Whitesburg, was in town Sunday and Monday.

Mr. C. H. Hyde, long an estimable citizen of Carrollton, went over to Newnan Wednesday and will probably remain, working in Cole's wood shop.

DRAKETOWN - Dr. M. K. Phillips, of Carrollton, has made his arrangements to move to this place and resume practice at his old stand. The family of William McDowell held a family reunion at the house of Mr. Jas. J. McDowell, just over the Carroll line some days ago. Besides the McDowell family, numbering forty-two, there were about two hundred invited guests, friends, and neighbors.... Grandpa and Grandma McDowell have had eight children born to them. They all--including their wives and husbands--were living and present, together with their grandchildren, at the barbeque....

SAND HILL - Col. John Bonner was married last Sunday evening to Miss Lucy J. Woods, near Atlanta.... She is a charming lady of about 35 summers, while the Colonel is as spry as a boy. Death has again visited our community, which we are pained to chronicle. James Dewberry's wife died this morning at the residence of T. A. Jourdin's. She leaves one child and a kind husband to mourn her loss. She will be carried to Haralson county to his father's, for interment.

WHITESBURG - Mr. Ben Hill of Sand Hill, Carroll county, has moved to Whitesburg. We learn that Mr. Kilgore of this place has bought Col. R. L. Edgeworth's farm. Mr. A. J. Hines' infant child died and was buried here on the 30th ult, Rev. W. W. Roop performing the burial service.

19 Aug 1881

Mr. Joseph Morris, living near Bowdon, has sold his place to a gentleman from Campbell county, and has gone out to the Sand mountain in Alabama, prospecting.

Mr. Jim Holmes is thinking about putting up a bakery in Carrollton....

Mr. B. A. Sharp, living some two miles west of Carrollton, on the Bowdon road, is one of the best farmers in the county....

COWETA - We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Benjamin Linderman of Carroll. He was raised in this community, and was beloved by all. We tender our sympathies to his widow and little orphan and to his aged parents.

Mr. J. B. Shields, formerly of this county, is now business manager of the South Lowell Advocate, published at South Lowell, Walker county, Alabama. He is also largely interested in merchandizing and milling.

WHITESBURG - George P. Roberts says he will have to strike three licks now where he struck one before -- it's a girl.

26 August 1881

Death has visited our musical family. Brother S. M. Brown was born in South Carolina in 1811, and moved to Georgia in 1834, and in 1836 was married to Miss Lucy Chandler.... He breathed his last, March 29th 1881... He has left a kind wife, eight children and many friends to mourn his loss....

Messrs. Askew, Bradley & Co. have bought the store room now occupied by them and will enlarge it at an early day. Dr. Cole has had quite a neat office erected on his lot between the stores of C. B. Simonton and Baskin & Stripling. Mr. H. O. Roop has recently bought Mrs. Tucker's residence and lot on Rome street. Col. G. W. Austin is having a new residence built on his place. It will have five rooms when completed. The Gaston brothers are doing the work.

Mr. W. O. Perry is having the fronts of the store rooms occupied by Mr. Jesse R. Griffin and Mr. James Holmes painted, and it adds very much to their appearance.

Carroll County Times, Cont'd.

Now if the other buildings on that corner, owned by Mr. Benson and Mr. Conyers, were also painted, that part of town would look right sprucey.

Frank Wilder, formerly of this county, has lately discovered some springs on his place, in the edge of Benton, Arkansas. The Sabine Courier says that these springs are attracting much attention and that there can be no doubt about their medical and life renewing qualities.

Jack Carr, living 5 miles northwest of Carrollton, while cutting off the end of a gate post had the ax to glance and cut nearly off his first and second toes on his left foot.

Major Coleman has moved back to Carroll from Cobb, and is fixing to establish a sheep ranch in the western part of the county.

Died near Sand Hill, on Sunday, the 14th inst., aged one year and 8 months, little Wilhelmina, infant daughter of Dr. B. L. Embry, of this county.

WHITESBURG - Mr. R. W. Smith of Campbell county is coming to our town for the purpose of engaging in the livery stable business. Mrs. John W. Gilbert and family are visiting her parents near Newnan. McMullin's residence and the millinery store.

BOWDON - We notice the following improvements on College street: Judge Downs has enlarged, repainted, and otherwise improved his store-house; Adamson, Brown & Smith are building a gin-house, which they expect to have ready in a short time with an entire new outfit, including engine; Mr. Wm. Barrow is building a handsome residence; Adamson & Smith are improving their house, corner of Mill and College streets. On Broad street, J. M. Adamson and Henry Dorr are putting up verandas on the front side of their dwellings. Building of the new Methodist church has commenced. Judge Downs has bought Col. Lovvorn's steam gin. J. L. Morris has sold his creek farm, just out of town, to a Campbell county man for $3600. Quite a novel marriage at Shelnetts hall Monday evening last -- Rev. W. S. Tweedell officiating -- Mr. W. G. Jinkins and Miss Mary Taylor were married at 7 p.m. The happy couple and their attendants were from Woodstock, Ala.

2 Sep 1881

Mr. A. L. Graham living some 5 or 6 miles northeast of town has sold to Willie Ingram of Coweta county, and G. T. Jackson in the same neighborhood has sold to Doc Lane also of Coweta.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Mr. Sloman Wynn, an old and highly respected citizen of the Sixth district.

STRIPLING'S CHAPEL - Mr. Oscar Knowles has sold out to Mr. Tom Robertson and Mr. Pole Sparks to a gentleman from Meriwether county, by the name of Caldwell. Mr. S. speaks of going to Arkansas. Carroll County Times, Cont'd.

SAND HILL - We regret to announce the death of the youngest child of Mr. Hood Williams on the 2nd inst. Peace to his remains.

BUFFALO - John Means is the happiest man in this country because it's a boy. Mr. Edward Smith of Coweta has bought B. W. Bonner's plantation, 3 1/2 miles this side of town. Mrs. Carter has sold part of her place to Alex Grice.

16 Sep 1881

Mr. B. F. Cotton is going to return to Carrollton. He has rented the Williamson corner and is going to put a large stock of sewing machines in it at an early day.

Gaines & Brown have rented the Skinner warehouse.

STRIPLING'S CHAPEL - Mr. Gus Jones had the misfortune to cut his foot with an axe pretty badly the other day.

WHITESBURG - We neglected to note last week that Col. E. S. Roberts has built a neat two room house just across the railroad from the postoffice. W. C. Aycock has got his new machine shop framed. It is a mammoth two story building.

KANSAS - Mr. R. F. Miller bought out Mr. J. W. McKissack, and Mr. McKissack bought Mr. L. J. Price's mill and gin with fifty acres of land. Mr. H. P. Dobson sold Mr. E. H. Murphy 40 acres of land. Miller Shockley & Jones have moved their large saw mill over in Kansas district, near Mr. G. D. Creel's place.

President Garfield is dead. Chester A. Arthur is the new President.

From the Franklin News - On Friday the 3rd day of September, there was a reunion of the family of Hon. W. W. Merrell, at his residence two miles north of Carrollton. There were gathered here to pay their respects to the parent stock, 15 children, 3 sons and 3 daughters-in-law, and 33 grandchildren, only two of the 56 members of the family failing to appear. The absence of Mrs. C. H. Merrell and one child on account of ill health, was the single regretful feature of the happy event.....
