Spring, 1999

Dear Fellow Members,

This is my first chance to address you as your president. Let me thank you again for the confidence in me you showed by electing me president of our fine organization.

With everyone's help, we can have a profitable and eventful year for this Society. But we must have your help. The president, board, and committee chairpersons can't do it alone. Come, volunteer your time and effort to the common cause, and we can do great things.

This is an important time to be a member of the Carroll County Genealogical Society. We've never had better resources for our searches than now. If you've been following the Quarterly, and attending our meetings, you know there are many places to research your family history here. First, of course, is our Special Collections Room at the Neva Lomason Memorial Library. Thanks to many of our members, this is an important resource, and it is becoming better. Then there are resources in the near neighborhood, like the Family History Centers of the LDS at Newnan and Douglasville, the State Archives, and the Atlanta branch of the National Archives.

Burgeoning in the last two or three years are the facilities for genealogical research on the Internet. These are increasing in both numbers of sites which may be accessed with sound data available, and in the number of other researchers you may correspond with.

In regard to numbers of people using the Internet, one site alone - Roots Web - reported 63,000,000 "hits" in November alone, and 119,000,000 E-mail messages. Some of your cousins have to be among those large numbers, just waiting to give you family information.

If you need help, get in touch with your officers and Board members. Someone can and will help. Good hunting and linking.

MRS. LOVVORN CELEBRATES HER 90TH BIRTHDAY OCT. 15

Written by Cindy Lovvorn

Mrs. Evie Francis Treadwell Lovvorn, age 90, a resident of Bowdon, has seen a world of change in her lifetime.

She grew up when horse and carriage was still the popular mode of transportation and television had not been invented. Theodore Roosevelt was President but at the time there was no Vice President. The average yearly salary was $424.00. Women made up 18 percent of the work force. At the movies "The Great Train Robbery" was the first story-telling movie and it lasted 12 minutes. Dr. Jackson and his mechanic made the first automobile trip across the U. S. A gallon of milk was 28 cents and stamps were two cents each.

Mrs Evie is one of nine children, the late Lottie Millstead, Jessie Haynes, Taby Smelly, May Jones, twins William and Thomas Treadwell (Thomas died at birth). Still living are Alice Barber and Lucy Kinard. Evie was born October 15, 1903.

George Washington Treadwell, father of Mrs. Evie, was a farmer and a carpenter. Sara Elizabeth Ward Treadwell, her mother, was a homemaker, overseeing the upbringing of her children. Unlike the modern times we live in, Mrs. Sara made all the clothes Evie and her brother and sisters wore. Mrs. Evie's parents are buried at Marvin's Chapel in Birmingham, Alabama.

Mrs. Evie Francis Treadwell Lovvorn

Today's children have little or no work to do around the family home, unlike Mrs. Evie -- there were plenty of chores to keep her busy. She had to pick cotton to keep her out of trouble, like all children, she disliked it. However it was a main source of money. After her morning chores she attended Friendship School at Bucktown.

At the age of 17 Mrs. Evie married Tom Lovvorn on a Sunday evening in front of Rev. Kites' home, in the year 1920. Mr. Tom passed away on April 12, 1977. They had a wonderful marriage which led them to have six children. The first child MaryWill died at age four, then there were Hazel Nuckolls, Stewart, Wayne, Doyle and the late Ray Lovvorn.

The fact that her children were happy and well-adjusted with families of their own brings Mrs. Evie the most satisfaction. She is the proud grandmother of 11 and a great grandmother of 16.

When asked what memory of her childhood sticks out most in her mind, Mrs. Evie paused, covered her lips with her fingertips and smiled. She said, "I remember playing house with my sisters acting like we were grownups. Our house was outside but it was only pretend. We drew on the ground, the walls, or sometimes placed rocks in a row. We had such a good time.

Mrs. Lucy, sister of Evie, talks about her as being a loving, independent and sassy little woman. The Treadwells were a close-knit family. Today Evie has only sisters Alice and Lucy to be with, but she has fond memories of the other sisters and brothers. She loves to sit and talk about the old days. Unable to read her Bible, Mrs. Evie listens to the gospel stations on the radio and occasionally country music. She is a member of Midway Community Church on Dot Road.

To Mrs. Evie's surprise on Friday, October 15, 1993, she was greeted by her friends and family to celebrate her 90th birthday. Mrs. Evie had no idea that there were so many people who even knew her birthday. She appreciates all the wonderful people who shared in the celebration, and those who could not be there, too.

HARRIS RUSSELL AND LEAH STEED
COWETA COUNTY PIONEERS AND RESIDENTS OF CARROLL COUNTY

Submitted by Nancy E. Williams, gr gr granddaughter

nelizw@aol.com

Harris Russell and Leah Steed, natives of North Carolina, migrated from that state to Coweta County, Georgia. A story has come down in the Steed line about a caravan of fourteen covered wagons which left North Carolina in the mid-1830s, bound for new lands in Georgia. The journey lasted over three months. Harris and Leah brought seven children from NC to Georgia and settled in Coweta County, living in a dirt-floor cabin.

Harris, son of Gabriel Russell and his wife Candis, was born 13 Sep 1799. Leah, daughter of Hilkiah Steed and Sarah (Sally) Hearn, was born 15 Mar 1800. They were married 17 May 1821, at the bride's home in Montgomery County, NC, by the Reverend Littleton Harris.

Around 1853, the Russells moved westward to Talladega County, AL, to a part of that county which later became part of Clay County, and in the next several years Harris and Leah lost seven grown children. The only clue to the cause of death for these young adults is a record, on the 1860 Talladega mortality schedule, of the death of a young woman in the Harris Russell household from tuberculosis. Five of these seven children are buried in the Russell Cemetery in Clay County, AL. If we presume that the family created a burying place near their home, then this family lived on land in a beautiful valley which is today a field off of Highway 130. The roadway passing the cemetery looks like a field road, but local residents say it is the remnant of a road to town. It is also said that there was an Indian settlement there at one time. An old house stood on a rise nearby, with large trees, until it was destroyed by a tornado in 1932. This area of Talladega County was known as Court Hill.

By 1870, Harris and Leah had returned to Georgia, settling in Carroll County. Of their surviving children, all except Moses moved on to Texas. Descendants in Texas today have been told the story of the Russell wagon train which traveled from Georgia and Alabama to East Texas. Harris Russell died 10 May 1873, and is buried at Old Camp Methodist Church in Carroll County. Leah Steed Russell went to Texas in 1877 to live with her daughter, Martha Ann. Leah died in Texas 23 July 1885, and her burial place is unknown.

MOSES RICHARD RUSSELL

Submitted by Nancy E. Williams, gr granddaughter
701 Wind Grove Rd., Marietta GA 30067
nelizw@aol.com

Moses Richard Russell was born 30 Sep 1835, the son of Harris Russell and Leah Steed, and the first of their children to be born in Georgia after the family's migration from North Carolina. In Coweta County, where the family lived until about 1853, Moses attended school in a dirt-floor log cabin which had a big fireplace, a dirt and stick chimney, and square holes cut through the logs for light. Moses' parents and brothers moved to the area of Talladega Co., AL, that became part of Clay Co. In 1867 Moses had a mercantile business at County Line, so named because it was on the border between Talladega and Randolph Counties. When the area became part of Clay Co., he suggested that the name of the town be changed to Lineville, and it was.

Moses and his brother James Harris served the Confederacy in Company D, John A. Hester Capt., 17th AL Regiment, Col. Johnson. They both were stationed at Mobile. Both brothers became disabled by sickness. James was discharged, and Moses sent a substitute. In 1864 he enlisted in Company B, DeArmand's Battalion and remained with it until the war's end. Moses returned to Georgia and settled in Carroll County where he served on the Board of Education, as Superintendent of Schools, and as a County Commissioner. An article in the Carroll County Times in 1880 stated that Moses was selling his farm and planning to move to Texas. I'm certainly glad he didn't do that!

Moses was married in Talladega Co. on 4 Oct 1857 to Frances Lumpkin (Fannie) Bell, the daughter of Sylvanus Bell and Elizabeth Mary Stipe. The marriage was performed by J. B. M. Landers, husband of Moses's sister Melvina. Fannie died 23 Apr 1873, leaving six children. Moses married second Fannie's first cousin, Elizabeth (Betty) Lumpkin Brown, the daughter of Franklin Brown and Agnes Stipe. They were married 7 Oct 1873 in Carroll County. Betty died 18 Sep 1909. Moses, Fannie, and Betty are buried in the Old Camp Methodist Cem., Carroll Co., GA.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Derek Barlow, P. O. Box 2064, Clayton, GA 30525, writes "I am in the process of writing a book on my Barlow family of Georgia, NC, Virginia, & England, and am trying very hard to locate more details on my Barlows of Carroll County. Recently I was able to find, with the aid of Mr. Hammond Dewberry of Tallapoosa, GA, the grave of my great, great, grandfather, Virgil Barlow. I subsequently had a Confederate Headstone put at his burial site. He and his wife Susan are both buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery off Hwy 100 just south of Tallapoosa. If you would like I could write a short narrative of this Barlow family for publication in the CCGS Quarterly.... (Yes, Mr. Barlow, we would be very interested! -- Editor)

The Carroll County Marriage Books are located in the Office of the Probate Judge, Carroll County Court House, 323 Newnan St., Carrollton, GA. The marriage records began in 1827. The records contain the name of the bride and groom, date of marriage, and the name of the official who performed the ceremony. These marriages have been listed in a publication called Carroll County Marriages, 1827 to 1980, by Jenny Martin Fagg. The published records do not contain the name of the official who performed the ceremony.

There are marriage certificates available from the 1890's to the present date. The same information that is contained in the marriage books is on the certificate. The Probate Judge will make a copy of the certificate for $4.00 per certificate, mailed to you. If you come in person, there is just the copy charge of $0.25.

Some marriage applications are on file from the 1920's. These applications contain the name of the bride and groom, their place of residence, and age. They do not contain the name of the parents. Only parental permission requests contain the name of at least one parent.

Listed below are the marriage certificates that are available for the years 1890 thru 1899. Microfilm, CARROLL COUNTY LOOSE MARRIAGE RECORDS, containing the full listing can be read at the Neva Lomason Library, Carrollton, GA, after October 1, 1998. This Library does not have the microfilm of the actual certificates. Microfilm containing copies of the list and the copies of the certificates can be used at the Georgia Archives in Atlanta. Possibly the Family History Centers of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints can provide a copy of the complete list, with the multiple rolls of certificates.

The Society published the A and B marriages in the Fall 1998 Quarterly, and the C marriages in the Winter 1998 Quarterly. The following is a continuation of the list:

Also the widow Henry Peek had her residence and everything in it burned up some days ago. She lived near County Line... Steel has sold his grocery to Craig & Bro., and will probably return to Big Shanty, Cobb county. Prof. N. S. Culpepper has withdrawn his bid for the school at Mt. QUERIES

ALLEN, NEW, WILLIAMSON.

I am attempting to write the story of Cicero WILLIAMSON and his wife Elvia Ann Elizabeth ALLEN who moved to Carrollton after the Civil War. About 1891 they moved to Rome where Elvy and daughter Sally died. They are buried in Magnolia St. Cem. with NEW and ALLEN relatives. Any help will be appreciated.

BARLOW, BURROW.

I am currently researching my BARLOW family of Carroll County and in particular the household of Emmett Virgil BARLOW (1838-1911) who fought in Co. B of the 56th Georgia Infantry, CSA, of Carroll County. Virgil BARLOW married Susan A. C. BURROW in 1861 and had the following children: George (b 1862), Amelia (b 1866), Francis C. (b 1869), William S. (b 1871), Nancy (b 1873), Mary S. (b 1876), and Arthur W. (b 1879). I am seeking any information on the above listed children of Virgil & Susan BARLOW and their descendants. I am also very interested in finding anyone who might have any old photos that may exist of Virgil or Susan BARLOW or any of their children and who would let me have them copied. Any information on these BARLOWS would be greatly appreciated.

BRYCE/BRICE, ORR

William and Mary ORR BRYCE/BRICE arrived in this country ca 1799. They brought two children with them, Mary and Elizabeth; two children, Agnes and Thomas, remained in Scotland. They settled in Union District (now Columbia, SC), and had either 8 or 9 more children. About 1825 they were in DeKalb Co., GA, and were two of the eight co-founders of the Decatur Presbyterian Church. About 1827 they were in Carroll Co., and William was a member of the Grand Jury for the First Court. "Carroll County and Her People," by Private Joe Cobb, states that a son, James BRYCE, was one of the early white settlers in the County. William BRYCE is mentioned in the book, "Georgia's Last Frontier," by James C. Bonner, as being appointed a commissioner for the town of Carrollton on 22 Dec 1829. Thomas, who remained in Scotland, joined his family in Carroll Co. I am interested in any info in re this family, especially when William and Mary died and where they might be buried. e-mail - wwilding@mediaone.net
