Projected Publication Dates

The projected publication dates for our quarterlies are March (cutoff date to receive material February 1); June (cutoff date to receive material May 1); September (cutoff date to receive material August 1); December (cutoff date to receive material November 1).

The cutoff date for our next issue is May 1, 2019. Please see that all genealogical material you wish to have published reaches us by that date. We especially would like to publish your ancestor charts and your family histories. This is an excellent way to let other researchers know what families you are related to.

The Carroll County Genealogical Society, Carroll County, Georgia, membership dues are $25 per person or family, on a calendar basis (January through December). Life memberships are not available. This publication is included at no extra cost in the membership dues, with one copy per family. Membership also entitles you to access the Members Only page on our web site. Former issues of the Quarterly are available at the prices shown on the back page of this issue. They may be ordered from the Carroll County Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 576, Carrollton, GA 30112.

Queries are published free for members. Queries for nonmembers will be published free, based on available space, and the Society reserves the right to edit lengthy queries.

This Society does not assume responsibility for errors in fact or opinion that may appear in articles furnished by its members. We will gladly correct any errors brought to our attention.

President's Message

March 2019

*A*s we welcome in 2019, we welcome a new slate of officers. Following in the great legacy of those who have stepped up to serve along the way. We will soon approach forty-two years as a Society. From a humble beginning with a single page newsletter to publishing a full Quarterly Journal.

I would like to express my appreciation again to the officers stepping down. Don Levans, President; Bill Maddox, Vice-president and Wanda Maddox, Secretary. The words to fully capture our appreciation have not been invented. There are words that touch on the essence of appreciation, though lack the full depth to say thank you for the vision, dedication and days and years of service. Please know you are loved for your contribution to the rich legacy of the Carroll County Genealogical Society.

There are several projects continuing and new ones beginning. The scanning of obituaries will soon be to the current week. Over 70,000 obituaries to search online.

The University of Georgia, in collaboration with the University of West Georgia, is scanning the cemetery books published by the Carroll County Genealogical Society. Afterwards, they will immediately begin scanning the quarterly journals through 2004. Each of these will become searchable online. This will allow anyone in the world to glimpse inside our county to search for their family.

We are fortunate as a Society to be changing with the times as we make more information available online as families search for the character of who their ancestors were. Learning the date of birth and the date of death of our ancestors is a good beginning. It is more of a challenge to discover who our ancestors were and what life was like "back in the day."

The upcoming Spring Workshop on March 23 will provide resources to help color in the picture of our ancestors. The Special Collections Room of the Neva Lomason Library holds a goldmine of resources to discover the life and times of our families.

I am excited with the potential of the Carroll County Genealogical Society as we move into the future. While we begin this year with a full slate of officers and committees, there remains opportunities to serve as we look to the future and even more projects to gather information and grow the Society.

I am honored with the opportunity to serve as President of the Carroll County Genealogical Society and look forward to guiding the society into the future. I entreat your prayers and support as we each contribute to the success of the Society.

Robert Blakemore

President

Items of Genealogical Interest

Carroll County Times

December 15, 1876—December 29, 1876

Abstracted by Ted O. Brooke

Only items with genealogical value and of local interest are abstracted here. The items are abstracted beginning at the top of column one, to the bottom of column one, then to the top of column two, etc. Only the initial appearances of advertisements and legal notices are abstracted and subsequent notices, if any, are not repeated.

Green B. McDonald Shot

Green B. McDonald of this place was shot on the public square on Tuesday last, by Jim Garner who lives near Hutchinson's mill in Coweta county. Mr. McDonald is very seriously, if not fatally wounded, the ball entering the abdomen, and it is feared penetrating to the cavity. The facts, as far we have been able to ascertain them, are these. Mr. McDonald is an auctioneer, and was selling goods at auction during most of the day Tuesday. His son Giles McDonald was acting as clerk for him, and kept an account of the sales. Garner was much under the influence of liquor and bid for many things that were offered for sale, purchasing some articles. Finally he told Giles, the clerk, that he had paid on more things than he had received. Words ensued in which the lie was passed. Garner drew his pistol as if eror [sic], shoot young McDonald when the father interceded, seizing Garner's pistol. In the scuffle that ensued, Garner shot McDonald as above stated. He was immediately taken into custody and lodged in jail. The whole affair was a most lamentable one, whisky being the cause of it all. — Newnan Herald.

The nineteenth report of the trustees and officers of the institution for the deaf and dumb of Georgia is before us. From it we learn that there were fifty-two pupils admitted the past scholastic year—eleven of these for the first time. We notice that there are in the institution two mutes from Carroll county, George W. Brown of Villa Rica, and James D. Shannon of Whitesburg.

New Advertisements. Bankrupt Sale

By virtue of an order from the Honorable District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, will be sold before the court House door in Carrollton, Carroll county, Georgia, within the usual hours of sale on the first Tuesday in January next, the following notes and accounts, judgments, executions, and other cases in action to-wit:

Editor's note: The following extensive lists include the name, date and dollar amount of the note or account; in the interest of space, I have omitted the dollar amount of each; the dates are shown in the original article as the last two digits only, with the first two digits of "18" being understood.

W. W. Merrell, Assignee. Dec. 15, 76

Sale of Real Estate (in Bankruptcy)

By virtue of an order from the district court of the United States of the northern district of Georgia, will be sold in the city of Carrollton before the court house door, on the first Tuesday in January 1877, the following land, to-wit:

Lot of land number 85, except one-half of the mineral interest, lying in originally the Eighth district of Carroll, but now Haralson County, Georgia, containing 202 ½ acres. Fractional lot of land number 164, containing one hundred thirteen and one half acres, lying in originally the Eighth district of Carroll, but now Haralson County and in the Eighth district.

Fractional lot of land, number 285, containing forty five acres, lying in originally the Eighth district of Carroll, but now Haralson, County. All the above sold for the benefit of the creditors of Christopher Robison, bankrupt. B. T. Thompson, Assignee.

Nancy M. Easterwood vs. Leroy L. Easterwood) Carroll Superior Court, October term 1876.
Petition for Divorce & c.

It appearing to the court by the return of the sheriff, that the Defendant does not reside in this county, and it further appearing that he does not reside in the State. It is therefore ordered that the defendant appear at the next term of this Court and answer the complaint of the plaintiff and that service of the petition and process in this case be made by publication of the order once a month for four months next, preceding said term, and that said case stand for trial at said term. Hugh Buchanan, J.S.C.C.C.

Oct. 5, 1876. The foregoing is a true extract from the minutes of said court. J. M. Meadows, Clerk
S. C. (ad placed Dec. 5, 1876).

Returned. This community will be glad to learn that the Rev. Mr. Quillian has been returned to this place by the North Georgia Conference.

Hymeneal. Married at Wesley Chapel church on Sunday the 10th inst., at 10:45 a.m., by S. W. Noland, Esq., Mr. John H. Lee to Miss Julean Jackson—all of the sixth district of Carroll County.

Brevities.

Last week we neglected to state that Dr. McElwreath had sold out his bankrupt stock to J. N. McEachern of Cobb County, who now has charge. The Doctor will go back into the practice of his profession. He thinks of locating permanently in Carrollton.

The council has had horse racks put up in the different parts of town. This is a great convenience to the country people.

The Newnan Herald says that there is a prospect of the Georgia Paper Mills situated in this county, resuming work at an early day. Mr. T. C. Bright who has had a life time experience as a paper manufacturer will have the work in charge.

Albert Sharp has been quite sick this week. We are glad to know he is convalescing now.

The Rev. Mr. Heidt has been continued as presiding elder of the LaGrange district for the coming year. The Rev. D. Nolan has been returned to Whitesburg. The Rev. J. L. Perrysman [sic] goes to Bowdon.

The advertisement in the Sheriff's sales against W. M. Allen in favor of A. S. C. Chance, administrator, has been settled.

Mr. A. J. Garrison will go out to Texas with Major Richardson. He goes to stay a year—will not move his family from Carrollton at present.

Meteor

On last Thursday night, at about 9 o'clock, we are informed that a meteor passed over this place going in a southern direction. Several of our citizens saw it, among others Mr. E. G. Kramer. Mr. K. says that it made quite a brilliant light, and apparently passed directly over Carrollton, exploding not far from here. We learn from a gentleman from Cedartown since then, that it was quite bright there and created considerable alarm. At Buchanan also, he says, the people were terribly frightened, which was manifested by the screaming of women and the crying of children. They think up there, he says, that it is the sign of another war.

Billow and About. Reported expressly for the Times by J. A. R.

The hunter's horn and yelping hound may be heard nightly in pursuit of the wary o'possum.

Miss Lizzie Brown of Bowdon, who taught school at Shiloh last summer, will, we are informed, teach at that place again next year.

The roof of Rev. W. S. Foster's house took fire on Sunday evening, the 3rd inst., but was discovered and put out before any serious damage was done.

Among our Exchanges

An old gentleman by the name of Moore was killed the other day by the train running over him near Ringgold.

Mr. M. C. Leigh of Newnan was recently married to Miss Remington of Cartersville.

The Henry County Weekly has changed hands—Coldwell & Humphries taking charge.

Jas. G. Smith of Harris County had his ginhouse burned on the 24th inst.—supposed to be the work of an incendiary. About two bales of seed cotton lost.

The Hon. Octavus Cohen, a prominent citizen of Savannah, is dead.

Col. Carey W. Styles has withdrawn from the Atlanta Telegram.

Bowdon Dots

Mr. John Woodcock had his hand badly torn by a gin.

On the 30th November Mr. W. C. Shelnutt cut his foot very badly with an axe.

On the 1st inst. Morris Coston, a son of Dr. Coston, was thrown from a horse against a tree and seriously injured. He had his jaw broken in three places.

Little Georgia Barrow, a daughter of J. R. Barrow, aged 8 years, died on the 5th inst. of diphtheria.

Married at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. S. R. Little, Mr. W. A. Wright to Miss Mattie Hugley—all of Bowdon.

Shooting Affray

Joe Lipsicomb [sic], colored, living on the plantation of R. W. Hendricks in this county, was shot and seriously wounded by a young man named J. T. Cruse, on Monday last. The version of the negro differs very materially from that of Mr. Cruse as to the origin of the difficulty. The negro says the dispute arose as to the possession of an axe. The negro had a sharp axe and Cruse had a dull one. Cruse borrowed the sharp axe and refused to give it up to the negro. As they were walking to the field, the negro slipped or jerked the axe away from Cruse. Cruse became offended, went off and procured a gun and shot the negro through the leg.

Cruse's version is entirely different and he has strong circumstantial evidence to corroborate him. He says Joe and Abe Lipsicomb [sic] have been angry with him for some time and have made frequent threats against his life. On Monday last they attacked him and drove him from the field where he was at work with them. He procured a gun and returned to the field and went to work, placing the gun by a stump near him. Soon they advanced toward him again with their axes, when he shot one of them. He then went to Mr. Upshaw's house near by, to whom he related the circumstances of his difficulty. Mr. Upshaw says his house was soon surrounded by negroes who were in search of Cruse. He told them that Cruse was there, but that if any of them attempted to enter he would kill them. That they had a legal remedy if Cruse had violated the law and should use no violence. Cruse subsequently came to town and had warrants issued against the two negroes who had attacked him. Cruse is said to be a very quiet and harmless young man. His person gives evidence of rough usage by the Lipsicombs [sic] in the first attack, — Newnan Herald. 🐼

Lost Bibles

Betty Jo Parsons

As I was rummaging up and down the aisles of a resale/thrift store recently, some old Bibles caught my attention. One of them was quite tattered, but it held some handwritten birth, death, and marriage records. The storekeeper said I could have the Bible if I wanted it. The family name in the Bible was Kaylor.

With a little research, I found that a young four-year-old Olen Kaylor was listed in the 1900 U.S. census records with his parents Thomas and Mattie Kaylor, of Cleburne County, Alabama. The Find A Grave website also shows that Olen Jeff Kaylor and his wife Mary M. Kaylor are buried in the Heflin Cemetery, Heflin, Alabama.

If any family member is interested in reclaiming this Bible, they may do so by contacting the Carroll County Genealogical Society at ccgsga76@gmail.com.

This and That . . .

CCGS Quarterly Journals

If you keep up with volume numbers of this quarterly journal, you will notice this issue is named Volume 40B. That's because your editor made an error in naming the volumes last year. The year 2018 should have been Volume 39 instead of Volume 40. Since I knew of no way to rename the issues in error, my best effort for a solution was to name this year 40B. Next year should be back on track starting with Volume 41 in 2020.

Our quarterly journals started in 1980 – that's almost 40 years of publications! Even as early as 1977 and 1979, there were four- to six-page "bulletins" published. By today's standards, you might say these bulletins were a bit primitive – one was mimeographed with a hand drawn map of Carroll County and inscriptions done in pencil. Others look like carbon copies, and then recopied. We owe a great deal of gratitude to those dedicated people who organized this society and put forth such effort to record the county's history.

All back issues of the CCGS quarterly journals (with the exception of the bulletins) are online at our website ccgsa.org and are available to all members. The compiled quarterly indexes through 2004 are also available online, with more to come in the future. There is a wealth of information available there – take advantage of it! 📖

New Books in Special Collections, Neva Lomason Library

Library Coordinator Carol Ferling notes several new books have been added to Special Collections. Among them are:

Southern Soldier: Memories of James C. Crawford

William Henry Nesbit

Almost as Good as Hot Dog Gravey, by Curtis Spivey

Front Porch Stories, by Curtis Spivey

West Family, 2 volumes

McLendon's of Carroll County, Georgia

Martin

Alice Huffard Richards

Our Angels, Oak Mountain Village Healthcare Residents, 2 volumes

Speaking of Books . . .

Our Book Chair, Sue Coleman, reminds us that we have quite a nice selection of books published by the Carroll County Genealogical Society (in addition to a few others, i.e. Index to Marriage Licenses, Carroll County, for both brides and grooms) for sale. These can be ordered directly from the society by using the order blank in this journal, or go online to our website ccgsa.org, or visit Friends of the Library in Carrollton.

W. A. MCBURNETT, Talladega County, Alabama, 1860s

Caroline MCBURNETT. Maiden name has been shown as Brewer/Bruner or Collins.

Martha A. MCBURNETT (this may be her married name.)

Matilda MCBURNETT (later married to whom?)

All of these people were in Talladega County, Alabama, from about late 1860s to 1880s.

Who were the parents of W. A. McBurnett, and Caroline Brewer/Bruner/Collins McBurnett?

Alfred Eugene Turner, June 14, 1929–December 11, 2018

Long-time member Al Turner of Morrow, Georgia, passed away on December 11, 2018. Mr. Turner's accomplishments and participation in many organizations are notable, but we knew him best as an avid genealogist and big supporter of the Carroll County Genealogical Society as well as the Georgia Genealogical Society. He published several volumes about his and his wife's ancestors and descendants.

His wife of 62 years, son, daughter, and grandsons survive. A grave side service was held at Forest Hills Memorial Gardens on December 15, 2018.

1856 Tax Digest Carroll County, Georgia

Tax Digest information can be very useful in genealogy research, especially in the years between census records. In addition to helping determine when a particular person was in a certain location, there is a lot of information on the digest that can be useful. Although there were changes in the law at various times, basically poll taxes were levied on free white males over 21 and all slaves up to the age of 60. The tax digests were enumerated by Military District. Property tax was also levied for certain items, including land and different types of property. The land information includes the number of acres owned, the land lot, county district and section number, value and class of the land, etc. Taxpayers paid taxes in the county where they lived for all property they owned, including land in other counties. In some cases professions are listed and the number of children in a household between the ages of 8 and 16 years.

Only five categories are abstracted here; the original tax digest ledger is available at Neva Lomason Library, Special Collections, Carrollton, Georgia. — Linda Leatherman

The Barrow Family of Bowdon

By Hugh Barrow

John William Barrow was born in Bowdon on 5 September 1866 during the reconstruction era of the beaten South to a disabled Rebel soldier father. He was orphaned at the age of 14 and went to live with his Uncle William who was appointed his guardian. He attended school in Bowdon and then entered Mercer University. He returned to Bowdon to enter business. He traded his inherited half-interest in Victory Mills for a store and a considerable amount of property in Bowdon and established a mercantile business on the north side of the main street building the first brick building in town. This building is now part of the corner bank building.

He later built six of the brick buildings on the south side of the street and expanded into a general store and even later specializing in hardware. The store became one of the largest and most successful in the area. He was a director of the local bank, director of the railroad and oil mill and was part owner of an unsuccessful pickle factory venture. He was also a trustee of Bowdon College and active in the Baptist Church, the Masonic Lodge and other civic organizations. He became wealthy only to lose everything during the great depression of the 1920s and 30s.

With all the disappointments, he maintained his great love of Bowdon and his fellow man, many of whom owed him money which was never repaid. He started several smaller businesses after the hardware store closed and in his last years could be found on the streets, always wearing a coat and tie and with highly polished shoes, especially on "Second Tuesdays," Bowdon's Trade Day, swapping and selling pocket knives. He was great fun to be around and was Bowdon's greatest booster.

"J. W." married Martha Ellen Lovvorn on Christmas Day, 1887 in Bowdon. Ellen was the daughter of the prominent citizen, W. D. Lovvorn, owner of the Lovvorn Mill complex on Indian Creek a mile or so north of Bowdon.

Their children were: Otis who married Alice Walker, Roy, Hugh Witt, infant Guy, Gladys who married Mallory "Bubba" Rumble and Frances who married Harvey Jackson. To make ends meet after the business failure, "Miss" Ellen, as she was known, turned the "Barrow House," which they had built around the turn of the century, into a boarding house. It was known for the great food and for a clean and safe home away from home for travelers as well as many of Bowdon's college students and schoolteachers. Ellen died in December 1943 and J. W. lived with his beloved Hugh and Virginia in the Barrow House until his death on 29 July 1951. He and Ellen are buried in the Bowdon City Cemetery.

Hugh Witt Barrow was born in Bowdon on Friday the 13th of January 1894. He always said that this was bad luck, and maybe it was. He attended Gordon Military Academy in Barnesville where he was a close friend and roommate of his distant cousin, future Georgia governor and senator, Richard Russell.

He returned to Bowdon and worked for the family hardware store and was in charge of their two White trucks, hauling all types of goods to-and-from Atlanta. After the store closed, he took the trucks and his two driver friends, "Red" and Lee, and hauled material for building highways in Alabama. Soon, as the depression worsened, the trucks were taken also. He then was shop foreman at Folds Motor Co. in Carrollton and then a furniture salesman in Rockmart. He returned to Bowdon and worked at Sewell's for many years and, later he substituted for his son-in-law, John Barr, as a rural mail carrier.

Hugh married Virginia Mae Trammell daughter of Thomas Appling and Lelia Johnson Trammell of Bowdon and Five Points, Alabama, on 28 October 1917. They were the parents of Virginia Ellen (Jean) who married John H. Barr Jr.; infant Sue; Hugh Will (Bill) who married Bonnie Jeanne Spruill; and David Trammell. "Gin" worked at Sewell's and after the death of Hugh on 10 November 1950, continued to care for "J. W." until his death.

She then struck out on her own and became a housemother at The Church's Home for Girls in Atlanta where she became the trusted "mother" and friend to hundreds of young girls who were coming to the big city from farms and small towns to find jobs. She retired and returned to live out her life in her "little house" in Bowdon next door to the Barrow House and to enjoy her children and grandchildren, her Church and Sunday School, her "As You Like It" Club and her many friends. She died on 21 May 1969 and is buried with Hugh in the Bowdon City Cemetery.

Bill (Hugh Will) and Bonnie moved back to Carroll County after a 54 year absence and settled in Carrollton. (Hope old "J. W." never realizes this as he would come up out of his grave and move me to Bowdon in a hurry, he never liked Carrollton after "they stole the college.") Chemical engineer Bill retired from the DuPont Company after 40 years service and for the next 10 years or so served as a consultant to several chemical, carpet and textile companies. His last few working years as a consultant were spent in developing the popular worn or distressed look on denim fabrics such as dungarees where he holds several patents.

Bonnie, the daughter of Marvin and Ruth Huddleston Spruill of the Smithfield community, was and is a wonderful mother and a very successful real estate sales lady in Delaware/Pennsylvania and in Dalton, Georgia.

They have four children: Dr. Hugh Jr., an OB-GYN specialist in Spartanburg, South Carolina; Lew Spruill, an Assistant District Attorney in Columbus; Ann Barrow Harris, Director of the pharmaceutical company Bayer in New London, Connecticut; and Rebecca, a Physician's Assistant anesthetist in Houston, Texas; and five grandchildren. 🍷

This concludes The Barrow Family of Bowdon.
