Summer, 1999

Dear Fellow Members,

This is my second opportunity to address you as your President. The year to date has been going quite well for the Carroll County Genealogical Society. All of our first three meetings of the year were well attended, and our yearly Workshop was very successful.

Members have appreciated the discussion of computers for genealogical research, and the hands-on experience offered in the use of computers through the efforts of our Vice President, Betty deVane. Mary Florence Word helped us all answer the recurring question, "What sort of people were our ancestors?"

The annual Workshop went off without a hitch, due to the efforts of many of our Board and members. Fifteen people who are not now members attended. We hope they will soon join. Mrs. Word was able to secure Mary Bondurant Warren as speaker for the Workshop. Mrs. Warren has a wealth of genealogical facts and anecdotes, which seem to burst forth from her. She is also the author of a number of books on the subject. We have been able to acquire some of these for use in the Neva Lomason Library Special Collections room. So come in and take advantage of this addition to our collection. We were able to secure the use of the Country Club facilities once again through the efforts of Jean Kytle. For this, our thanks. They were excellent, as were Mrs. Kytle's sweet rolls. The long-time head of the Workshop events, Dr. Gene Sneary, was not able to be with us for much of this session due to sickness. We missed him, and hope he will soon be returning to health.

If my year as President is successful, it will be due in very large part to the CCGS Board. This group of knowledgeable people work many hours so that you may experience useful and interesting meetings on our mutual subject. This Board consists of our present officers and several past officers and dedicated members.

For one thing, the Board has taken upon itself the planning and execution of programs for the Society this year. Many hours of thinking have gone into this. Besides, they are responsible for maintaining our fiscal integrity and well-being, as well as our work with the Library. Our plaudits to all of them.

Soon summer will be here (the so-called "spring weather" bears witness to that) and time will come again for our annual picnic. This will be held in June at the home of Mrs. Lee Wash. Make your plans now to attend this social occasion.

Now, back again to the serious (but fun) business of research into our families. Thanks for your attention.

WOMAN SEARCHING FOR HER LONG-LOST 'AUNT LIZZIE'

By Chris Joyner, The Villa Rican

TRAIL GOES COLD IN CARROLL CO.

An Alabama woman's search for her father's long-lost siblings has reached a dead end in Villa Rica, and she's hoping someone will point her in the right direction.

In January 1914, Martin Luther Hammond, his brother and two sisters were placed in the Children's Home Society orphanage in Atlanta after their destitute mother had been abandoned by her husband. Shortly after entering the orphanage, the Hammond children were sent to live with separate foster parents, forever separating 5-year-old Luther (as he was known) from the rest of his family.

Although he remembered very little of his life prior to his adoption, Luther Hammond spent much of his adult life searching for his brother and two sisters, never finding them before his death in 1985.

Luther Hammond's daughter, Pat, said her father never found "closure" in his lifetime and was tormented by the thought of family members he might never see again.

"My father, even in the years right before he passed away, he would sit and cry like a baby," said Pat Hammond, a resident of Gadsden, Ala.

Luther Hammond began his search for his family in 1935, when he discovered that he had been adopted. The day before his wedding, Luther's adoptive parents told him of his family background and his birth name.

"The day before he was married, his foster family told him his birth name, so he could raise his family under his family name," Hammond said.

Luther Hammond's search for his family was complicated by a lack of records and virtually no memory of his birth family.

"He remembered nothing," Pat Hammond said. "He said he could remember the name 'Sarah'; however, Luther couldn't be sure whether Sarah was a sister or just a playmate he dimly recalled from the orphanage."

As it turned out, Sarah was Luther's sister -- a fact Luther would never know.

Following Luther Hammond's death, his children took up the search in his memory. Pat Hammond said the need to find his siblings was so great that she had tried to help him in any way possible, but she also admitted that she needed to find her own roots as well.

"It is a part of who my father was," she said. "But there is a need to know also."

Luther's children did not have much more luck tracking down their aunts and uncles than he did. It was not until the coming of the Internet revolution that Pat Hammond had her luckiest break.

In October 1997, Pat Hammond began searching genealogy web sites on the Internet to get ideas on how to trace her ancestry. After posting a few queries on how to get adoption records, Pat got an anonymous e-mail with the information she needed.

"Someone e-mailed me and told me who to call and what to ask for," she said.

By October 1998, Pat has 56 pages of adoptive records from the Children's Home Society -- records, incidentally, Luther Hammond had been told were destroyed by fire.

The discovery of the records has helped her locate her father's brother and sister, both of whom died in the 1960s. Although she was too late to reunite with her aunt and uncle, she has been able to meet her cousins and the new extended family has become very close.

"There is no way I could describe it," she said of the reunion. "It was very emotional."

The only remaining relative still lost is Luther's oldest sister, Elizabeth Smith, or "Aunt Lizzie," as Pat calls her. According to the adoption records and the 1920 census, Elizabeth, then 15, lived briefly with a foster family in Austell before marrying Reese Smith on Feb. 18, 1916 in Douglas County. After the birth of their son, Lee Smith, the family moved to Villa Rica, Records of Lizzie and her family end in 1930, just five years before Luther began his search. While Pat Hammond doesn't expect her aunt is still alive, she still hopes to contact her children or grandchildren, if she can find them.

"It would really mean a lot to us," she said.

Pat Hammond hopes that finding the last piece to her family puzzle will finally finish the work her father began nearly 65 years ago and bring the Hammond family back together once again.

Anyone with information on Elizabeth Hammond Smith can contact Pat Hammond at 1144 7th Ave., Gadsden, Ala. 35901. Or call her at 256-547-2857.

The following genealogical information was taken from an article in the Times-Georgian of 9 February 1997

THE LOVVORN FAMILY

Lovvorn Road was named for Henry O. Lovvorn. He was born in Newell, Alabama, in 1874, the son of William Daniel Lovvorn. About 1876, the family moved to Bowdon where William Daniel operated a grist mill on Indian Creek. Lovvorn Road, which was named for Henry, becomes Smithfield Road near Indian Creek and soon intersects with Lovvorn Mill Road, named for W. D. Lovvorn's mill.. W. D. Lovvorn was said to have contributed financially to the construction of many churches in the Bowdon area, as well as Bowdon College.

Henry O. Lovvorn met Effie Hay at a camp meeting and they were married in 1897. He earned a business degree at a school in Kentucky, and started working for Carrollton businessman Wyley Stewart. Later he contacted L. C. Mandeville, president of Mandeville Mills, and rose through the ranks to become vice-president and general manager of the Mills.

The Lovvorn house at 701 Maple St. in Carrollton, now known as the Preston house, was built in 1907. There was no direct route from Maple Street to the Mandeville Mills, so Henry O. gave the right of way for what would be called Lovvorn Road.

Henry O. and Effie Hay Lovvorn had the following eight children: Julian, Bill, Henry, Mary, Sara, R. J., Frances, and Frank. Mary Lovvorn and Sara Lovvorn Weeks are the only surviving children, at the time this article was written. There are three pictures with this article: The Lovvorn home, daughter Mary Lovvorn, and Henry and Effie and their eight children, which picture is too dim for printing in the Quarterly.

The Lovvorn Family, Cont'd.

In regard to the preceding abstracted article, the following is written in the hopes that some of you who belong to the above family will write to us, telling how you relate to this family, and giving us a little bit about your family. If you like the way this is written, we will try to print more articles like this in future issues.

Henry O. Lovvorn Sr. was born 15 June 1876 (according to his cemetery marker), and died 25 Nov 1938. Effie Hay Lovvorn was born 6 Aug 1875, and died 8 Aug 1973. They are both buried in the Carrollton City Cemetery.

Henry Oliver Lovvorn Jr. was born in Carroll County about 1906, the son of H. O. and Effie Hay Lovvorn. He attended Mercer University, and retired from AT&T following 42 years of service. For several years he was a minister of the First Christian Church in Lehigh Acres, Florida. He had daughters Claire (Mrs. Robert L. Hadden), Ellijay, GA; and Lynda (Mrs. F. E. Rolston), Chattanooga, Tenn; also four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He died 10 May 1990, at Ellijay, age 84, and is buried in the Carrollton City Cemetery.

Robert J. Lovvorn was born 1 Mar 1910, and died 10 July 1958. He is buried in the Carrollton City Cemetery.

ELIZABETH HARRIS HIGH SCHOOL

By Donald & Violette Harris Denney - January 1999
135 Maple Hill Rd., Carrollton, GA 30116-8546

The land for the Elizabeth Harris High School was given by William Washington Harris, my great-grandfather. It was part of his farm on Bankhead Highway. He had moved to town and was living on Stewart Street. My great-grandmother, Elizabeth Tyson Harris, died in 1917 on Stewart Street. The school was built after her death on March 8, 1917, and it was named after her. She was born September 10, 1847, in Meriwether Co., Ga., and she is buried in the Jordan Cemetery near Bethany Christian Church on Highway 166.

Wynona Harris Payton, my sister, attended the first through fifth grades at Elizabeth Harris School (1933/34-1937/38), the sixth and seventh at Sand Hill (1938/39-1939-40), eighth, ninth, and tenth at Villa Rica High School (1940/41-1942/43), and the eleventh grade at Carrollton High School (this was her senior year, 1943/44, and she graduated from Carrollton High School). My brother, J. T. Harris Jr. , went three years to Elizabeth Harris School and then he went on to Sand Hill. My sister, June Harris Strobino, attended one year 1937/38 in the first grade there.

The Educational History of Carroll County, by James C. Bonner, contains the following statement: "...Finally, in 1930, at the beginning of the Great Depression, it cooperated with the Carroll County Board of Education to enroll high school students from the Little Bethel, Sand Hill, Elizabeth Harris, and Pine Grove communities. The county paid only transportation costs." - (This statement is referring to the A. & M. School, and is found on Page 25).

Elizabeth Harris High School, Cont'd.

On Page 30, this statement is found: "The new Elizabeth Harris schoolhouse near Sand Hill, costing $8,000, was constructed of brick." (However, the schoolhouse was a wood frame building.)

This information was taken from the History of Sand Hill, compiled during 1960's and 1970's, by Mrs. Claribel Snellings McGuire: "In 1938 Elizabeth Harris School had asked to be consolidated with Sand Hill and was then a strong possibility that would be done."

The following paragraph was taken from this same History: "In September of 1938 plans were under way to make Sand Hill a junior high school. County school superintendent J. H. McGibony expressed the opinion that Sand Hill would have their desires fulfilled as there were already 112 pupils enrolled. The school was then having a nine month school instead of seven and four teachers whereas they had only one in 1937."

On February 6, 1993, I talked with Berma Hamil (Mrs. Lorenzo Dow Hamil) about the Elizabeth Harris School. She taught during the 1934/35 school year. She said she thought Mrs. Minnie Lee Earnest taught grades 1 - 3, she had grades 4 - 6, and Mr. L. D. Hamil taught 7 - 9. But she couldn't be sure. After all she taught school 33 years! Mr. Hamil was a teacher there for three years. The year they both were teaching there, they lived in one of the back rooms. She said they didn't have electricity; they used an Aladdin Lamp. She said she wished she still had that lamp but she didn't know what happened to it. Berma Hamil said they were the first to live in the schoolhouse. It was necessary because hunters would come in and make a mess. Before they married, Mr. Hamil boarded with the Heltons near the school. During the year they lived there, they kept a gun under the bed.

In January 1998, during a telephone conversation with Opal Farmer Nicholson, my first cousin, I asked her about the old schoolhouse. Opal went to school there through her freshman year and then finished high school at the A&M school in 1927. Then she went on to Bowdon College. Opal didn't know when the school building was torn down but she said it was taken down to reuse the lumber.

On January 4, 1998, after talking with Hamp and Melba Sullivan, we located the foundation for the walls of the schoolhouse and the old brown well curb. The school was located behind the little house at 1868 Hwy. 166. The foundation measured 50 feet by 50 feet with an additional 12 feet by 12 feet for a front porch. The property is currently owned by Mrs. B. C. Pitts.

January 12, 1998, Winton Harris said he went to school there from about 1922 to 1933 and finished 10 grades. He went to A&M for his senior year but they put him to picking peas. He said he could pick peas at home and quit. He went to Carrollton the next year and graduated.

On January 13, 1998, I called Mary Ellen and Ivey West and asked what they could remember about the Elizabeth Harris School. Mary Ellen said they lived and taught there a year in 1937-38. They lived in one room and it was divided into a bedroom, kitchen, and living room. It was one of the back rooms. The Wests have a son, David Harris West, named after his grandfather, David Harris, and he was born in 1938 in Temple where Ivey West taught and was basketball coach.

Mary Ellen described the school as having two floors. The lower floor had four classrooms with an entrance hall and just inside the front door to the right there were stairs going up to the auditorium. The upstairs was just one room with a small dressing room for the girls and another for the boys. This is where they had plays. She said Rudy Maxwell taught there and he directed the plays. He would order books and the students had to memorize their parts. The whole community would come to see the plays.

Mary Ellen Peek West attended school at Shady Grove. She said they had school plays, too. And she remembered being the star in "Mamie's Little Wild Rose." She was the "Little Wild Rose." It was directed by J. B. West, Ivey West's brother. Shady Grove School went through the ninth grade and to continue you had to go to Carrollton. Mary Ellen said she didn't have any transportation so she went another year in the ninth grade before she had to quit.

The Wests did not know what happened to the schoolhouse.

I called Allen Rooks on March 2, 1998, because his father owned the W. W. Harris farm for several years. Allen said they lived there in 1941-1947 approximately. Allen remembered playing on the foundation - the schoolhouse was already gone.

Hamp Sullivan told me Irvin Akers had a report card from Harris High School and wanted me to call him. When I called he said his brother, Eugene Akers, had attended school there. Eugene Akers was very understanding. He didn't send me a copy; he sent me his original report card for the second grade showing he was promoted to the third grade. Gladys McClendon, teacher, signed the card April 22, 1938. The front of the Report Card reads, "THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF CARROLL COUNTY, Report of Eugene Akers, Grade Second, Year 1937-38, G. McClendon, Teacher; I. G. West, Prin. School; Name of School ELIZABETH HARRIS."

On January 7, 1999, while discussing the Boatright/Williams family history with James (Jim) Embry, I asked if he went to school at the Elizabeth Harris School. He said he completed the first through third grades there and the fall of 1937 until Christmas in the fourth grade. His teacher in the first grade was Minnie Lee Earnest. In the second grade his teacher was Frances Brock. Mrs. Payne was his teacher in the third grade, and Gladys McClendon taught him during the fall of 1937 in the fourth grade. Jim said the school was torn down but he didn't know the details.

If Opal Nicholson started school there and graduated from A&M in 1927, the school was first used in the fall of 1917. And if the schoolhouse was not used after the spring of 1938 and the building was gone in 1941, it was torn down sometime between these dates.

January 9, 1999, Jim Embry called to say that he had called J. E. (Gene) Richards to ask if he knew what happened to the school. Gene said Tom Martin bought the building and disassembled it, and used the lumber to build three or four small houses on Sims Street (pretty sure it was Sims Street) in Carrollton. He said Tom Martin was no longer living. He agreed that the time was about 1940.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are grateful to our member Jim T. Thornton, Ranburne, AL, who located the Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church, Carroll Co., minutes. This Church was formed in 1844 and closed in 1989. Due to the diligence of Mr. Thornton and the generosity of Mr. Alton Robinson, we now have these minutes in our possession. They will be copied and then given to the Special Collections at the State University of West Georgia for safe keeping. Abstracting has been started and will be published in future issues of the Quarterly.

MY WILLIAMS CONNECTION

By Bill Mitchell
55 Goldworth Rd., Villa Rica, GA 30180

My mother was Unice Inez Williams Mitchell. Most of her family and her mother's family lived in Carroll County. I have told about her mother's family, the Lassetters, in a previous article, "My Lassetter Connection."

Mother's father was John Worth Williams, born 27 Oct 1847. In the spring of 1906, he was doing his Christian duty. He was visiting a sick neighbor near Villa Rica. He "sat up" with this neighbor, who was suffering from typhoid fever. While there, he drank a gourd of water from the well. No one then knew that typhoid is carried by contaminated water. My grandfather contracted the disease, and died of it on 21 May 1906. He was 59 years old.

He left behind a widow, Martha Caldonia Lassetter Williams, and nine children. These were: Falbie Elenor (known as Ellen), Ira Wellington, Hiram Benjamin, Leroy Jackson, William Worth, Felix Archibald, Olive May, Amy Devine, and Unice Inez (my mother).

John and Martha had acquired a small tract of land when they were married 27 July 1871. They were real pioneers, though much of Carroll County was settled. Together, with some help from their families, they cut timber and built their own first home. It was made of hand-hewn logs. The main room was 18 feet by 24 feet. It had a large fireplace, used for both heating and cooking. Later a small attached kitchen was built. There was a "sleeping loft," reached by a ladder, in which the children slept. A nearby well furnished water.

The family prospered, having a number of strong sons to help. John Worth bought the land just east of him, which had a log house, built in 1835, with a permament spring to furnish water. By 1891, he had bought another tract of land to the east, bringing his total acreage to 360.

In 1891, John Worth and Martha built a new, much finer home on the old Villa Rica-Carrollton Road, two miles south of Villa Rica. This home exists today. Much of the lumber for it came from the farm owned by his father, William Williams, situated on the Bay Springs Road a mile or so away.

John was a successful and innovative farmer at a time when a large part of the population farmed. He opened a dairy with registered Jersey cows, raised purebred Berkshire hogs, and Barred Plymouth Rock chickens. He also raised cotton, and corn and hay for the livestock.

After John Worth died, his intrepid widow, Martha, managed the farm, assisted mainly by her son, Felix. The older sons married and moved away. "Tenet farmers" helped till the farm.

The most prominent, if not the most affluent, of John Worth's and Martha's children was Ira. He attended college at the University of Georgia, and became a teacher. After teaching two years at Sand Hill, Ira went to Temple where he established the Temple Academy, an innovative school, in 1905. (See "A Historical Sketch of Temple" by Burell Holder and Ruth Roberts Holder.) This school closed after 1907 because the town could not support it. Ira went to work for two Georgia A&M school, the Agricultural Extension Service and later became the Georgia State Entomologist.

Ben and Lee also became farmers. Ben managed a large horse-raising farm in Aiken, S.C., for polo star Tony Hitchcock. Lee owned Oak Lawn, a large farm in the western outskirts of Carrollton. Will became a church-building Baptist minister, first in Locust Grove and then Macon. Ellen, Felix, May, and Amy never married. Amy became a nurse widely admired in Carroll County.

Eunice Inez attended the Georgia State College for women, and married William Grant Mitchell Sr. of Social Circle, son of a large farmer and teacher there. I am their son.

The first Williams ancestor I have been able to trace was John Williams Sr., who was born in 1700 in Brunswick Co., VA. John married Frances Wyatt, also born in Brunswick Co. in 1719. He died in 1763.

John Williams Jr. was the son of John Sr. and Frances. He was born in Brunswick Co. about 1722. He married Elizabeth Ledbetter, born in 1725 of a prominent English family which goes back to Thomas Ledbetter, born in 1600 in Durham, England. John Jr. died in 1772 in Brunswick Co., VA. Elizabeth also died about 1772 in Brunswick Co.

William Williams was the son of John Jr. and Elizabeth. He was born in 1757 in Brunswick Co., VA. He moved to Rutherford Co., NC, where he married Nancy Middleton, born about 1757 also. The Middletons are also an old English family. William joined a company of soldiers during the Revolutionary War who were, in his words, fighting "Tories and Indians" on the frontier. This frontier company was disbanded, and William joined a second such company. Finally, he joined the army of Gen. Greene in SC. I have documented William's Revolutionary War service to the SAR, as well as my lineage back to him. He died 10 Sep 1834. Nancy lived to collect his pension, and died 27 July 1840.

Their oldest son was Leroy Williams, born 1791 in Rutherford Co., NC. Leroy moved south, first going to Jasper Co., GA. There he met and married on 11 Dec 1811, LaDicey Kelley, born about 1795. They were members there and later of the Primitive Baptist Church. They, with LaDicey's sister Celia and her husband, moved to Carroll Co. Here, Leroy took up a large farm near Villa Rica, and lived here the rest of his life. They were members of New Hope Baptist Church. Leroy died about 1880, and LaDicey died before that date. Both are buried in the old Williams Private Cemetery a half mile east of GA 61, on the Bay Springs Creek Rd. Their graves have only a fieldstone marker.

Leroy's son, another William, was a successful farmer and a land trader. He married Elizabeth Sharp, daughter of "Uncle" Hiram Sharp, a pioneer settler and farmer of Temple. Hiram was born in Maryland 18 Nov 1787. He arrived in Carroll Co. and took up a farm south of Temple on the Little Tallapoosa River before 1826. He is noted in "Carroll County and It's People" by Pvt. Joe Cobb. William's and Elizabeth's farm lay east of what is now GA 61, about three miles south of Villa Rica. William died 8 Feb 1892 and Elizabeth died 2 Sep 1903. William, Elizabeth, a Harper son-in-law, daughter Dicey Williams Harper, and several small Williams and Harper children are buried in the old Williams Cemetery on Bay Springs Creek Road.

As noted above, John Worth Williams was William's and Elizabeth's son. I now live on the farm John Worth and Martha established. It has been taken into the City of Villa Rica. John Worth and Martha Caldonia are buried in the New Hope Cemetery just east of Villa Rica. Also buried in the Williams plot there are Ellen, Ira, and an infant who died at birth, as well as John Worth's sister Amanda. My mother, my father, Felix, Amy, and May Williams are buried in the Villa Rica Cemetery.

The funeral was held from the residence Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. Jesse M. Dodd. Interment was held in the City Cemetery immediately following.

ELUSIVE ANCESTOR

by Merrell Kenworthy

I went searching for an ancestor. I cannot find him still.
He moved around from place to place and did not leave a will.
He married where a courthouse burned. He mended all his fences.
He avoided any man who came to take the U. S. Census.
He always kept his luggage packed, this man who had no fame,
And every 20 years or so, this rascal changed his name.
His parents came from Europe. They should be upon some list
Of passengers to the U. S. A., but somehow they got missed.
And no one else in this world is searching for this man.
So, I play genea-solitaire to find him if I can.
I'm told he's buried in a plot, with tombstone he was blessed,
But the weather took engraving, and some vandals took the rest.
He died before the county clerks decided to keep records.
No Family Bible has emerged, in spite of all my efforts.
To top it off, this ancestor, who caused me many groans,
Just to give me one more pain, betrothed a girl named JONES!

MORROW, STRICKLAND
My great grandfather was W. W. STRICKLAND. He was married to Elizabeth MORROW. They were from Spaulding Co., so I am told. I need to find out what his father's name was before I can go any further with this research. They had ten children together: Sons Charlie, W.T., Walter, Lee, and Ector M. Daughters Carrie, Fannie Bell, Matilda, Annie, and Rose. I am looking for any information on W. W. STRICKLAND, born 06 Nov 1843, died 28 Mar 1919. Elizabeth MORROW was born 11 Sep 1845, died 08 May 1929. Both are buried at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church Cem. I do not know where William W. STRICKLAND came from, or what his parents' names were. There is no one left for me to ask about the lineage on this family. The ones that are still alive cannot remember or are not sure of what they can tell me. His children lived in and around the Carrollton area. His grandson, Junior (or Strick) STRICKLAND, still lives in Carrollton, and some relatives are buried there. I do not know much more about W. W. He was in the War Between the States. I am not sure about any brothers or sisters, or whether or not he had any. Any information on any of the names in this query would be appreciated. I will pay for your time and work -- just let me know.
